

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Contact: Dennis Maggi
949.752.1801
dmaggi@actl.com

ATTORNEY ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

Gregory S. Clayton, Esq. has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, one of the premier legal associations in America.

The induction ceremony at which Attorney Clayton became a Fellow took place recently before an audience of approximately 656 persons during the recent 2010 Spring Meeting of the College in Palm Desert, California.

Founded in 1950, the College is composed of the best of the trial bar from the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only and only after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality. Lawyers must have a minimum of fifteen years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship.

Membership in the College cannot exceed one percent of the total lawyer population of any state or province. There are currently approximately 5,752 members in the United States and Canada, including active Fellows, Emeritus Fellows, Judicial Fellows (those who ascended to the bench after their induction) and Honorary Fellows.

The College strives to improve and elevate the standards of trial practice, the administration of justice and the ethics of the trial profession. Qualified lawyers are called to Fellowship in the College from all branches of trial practice. They are carefully selected from among those who customarily represent plaintiffs in civil cases and those who customarily represent defendants, those who prosecute accused of crime and those who defend them. The College is thus able to speak with a balanced voice on important issues affecting the legal profession and the administration of justice.

Attorney Clayton is a shareholder in the firm of Primmer Piper Eggleston & Cramer PC and is based in the firm's Littleton, New Hampshire office. He has been practicing for twenty-seven years. Attorney Clayton focuses his practice in the area of civil litigation and is admitted to the New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine bars. He is also admitted to practice before the United States District Courts for New Hampshire and Vermont, the First and Second Circuit Courts of Appeal and the United States Supreme Court. The newly inducted Fellow is an alumnus of Dartmouth College and Georgetown University Law Center.